

Summer Reading Assignment

Dear 6th Grade Readers,

Your assignment this summer is to read the novel The Egypt Game. A copy of this book will be given to you before you leave on summer break. Once you have completed the book, you will write a five paragraph paper using the following criteria:

1st paragraph: Introduce the book. Make sure you start with an opening sentence that makes your reader want to read more!

2nd-4th Paragraph: Respond to the readings by answering some or all of these questions in paragraph form:

1. Tell about your feelings about the characters.
2. Tell about your feelings about the story
3. Explain about the parts you liked or disliked (or both)
4. As you were reading, what questions did you ask yourself about the story?
5. What are your predictions about the story?
6. What things did you wonder while reading the story?

5th paragraph: Write a conclusion paragraph

Paragraphs should be 5-8 sentences, and the students should proofread and correct any grammatical errors before turning in the paper. The paper needs to be typed and double spaced.

This assignment is due the first day of school.

You will take a book test on Friday of the first week of school also.

Have a great summer!
